INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND VICINITY.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in His Town
as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake
Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

Miss Kitty Bosch is spending the week in San Francisco.

Eugene Dutil of San Francisco visited his folks here Sunday.

Mrs. J. Palmer of Vallejo is a guest at Seven Oaks this week.

John Serres was an El Verano visitor to the metropolis Monday.

Thomas Baines is transacting business in San Francisco this week.

Harry and Leo Baines spent the fore part of the week in San Francisco.

Miss Alice Kearney of Oakland is a guest at the Kearney home here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Peterson visited in the metropolis the latter part of last week.

Mrs. N. Dowdall is visiting friends and relatives in San Francisco, Oakland and Alameda.

The news of Patrick Monahan's sudden death in Glen Ellen was a great shock to his friends here.

Jos. Dowdall shipped a carload of dried prunes to San Francisco by the Southern Pacific on Wednesday.

J. Dowdall and wife have returned to their home here after an outing of several weeks at Dillon's Beach.

Harry Lubbock, proprietor of the Riverside Hotel, spent the latter part of last week transacting business in the metropolis.

Jim Griffin, the well-known San Francisco fight promoter, was a guest at Harry Lubbock's Riverside resort Saturday and Sunday.

Charley Childs has returned home after spending several weeks in the Bay City. He is looking fine and is much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lewis and daughter have gone to San Francisco, where they will spend several days visiting friends and relatives.

It is understood that the Southern Pacific Co. employs 486 special track-walkers on its system while the Northwestern Pacific has only one, and he is on night duty at Verano station.

The reservoir of the Sonoma Valley Water, Light and Power Co. on the L. L. Lewis ranch is now completed. A more substantial wall has been erected in place of the old one and the reservoir is now in good shape and ready for business.

Richard Vivian, the popular comedian of the Belasco Stock Co. in Los Angeles, is a visitor at El Verano-Villa. He spends his time horseback riding and looking over the country. It is possible he may purchase a chicken ranch here and become a permanent resident of our beautiful valley.

Albert Rossi is in San Francisco this week sight-seeing.

Among those who visited San Francisco from this place last Sunday were A. W. Weaver, R. E. Mullen, L. Mouyer and F. Joost.

"The house that Jack built" has again been sold. This house has been on the move ever since it was built several years ago, and came near being involved in litigation a few weeks ago. It is owned by Sergeant of Police Pork of San Francisco, who now claims that the house has finally found a last resting place and expresses himself as being mighty glad of it, too.

Louis Lamotte, Harry Earl, Richard Vivian, Daniel McDonald, Louis Vackland, Gus Gernsback and A. Nevaumont autoed to Asti and other cities en route last Thursday. They also inspected the Italian-Swiss Colony's big winery during their stay at Asti, and report that some of the wine was actually left in the immense vat when they departed for home.

A social club has been started in this burg by a number of our young men. It will be known as "The Pipe Club," and much interest is being taken by its members in the new organization. At a meeting held Tuesday evening Leo Dowdall was elected President and John Serres Jr. Vice President. About fifteen members have so far enrolled their names and the new club promises to be a big success. Its members will give a smoker in the near future.

Louie Lamotte of El Verano Villa has another treat in store for his many patrons and friends. On Saturday evening, November 11th, a big vaudeville performance and dance will be given. Five real vaudeville acts have been engaged, including the McDonald sisters, singers and dancers of reputation; the dainty little soubrette, Flora Robinson; a clever black art performer, a real buck and wing dancer, etc. A dance will follow the performance, as usual. The whole affair promises to be one of the best entertainments ever given at this popular resort.

A couple of noble red men of the forest spent Saturday night and Sunday in one big carousal just north of the Southern Pacific depot, and the way the red wine flowed was a caution. What we need out this way is some of Judge Campbell's medicine. Whoever is selling liquor to the Indians hereabouts should be ferreted out, arrested and prosecuted to the full extent of the law. As numbers of railway trains pass here daily it is only a question of time, if a stop is not put to furnishing the Indians in this vicinity with intoxicants, that a tragedy on the rail will be enacted here, with an inebriated Indian as the victim. It is suspected that the liquor was sold to these Indians by parties in this place.

RESTORATION OF SONOMA'S MISSION

State Engineer Ellery and Commissioners Duhring and Henderson Hold Conference in Sacramento.

State Engineer Ellery and Landmarks Commissioners Fred T. Duhring and John A. Henderson met in Sacramento Monday and had a conference with the Board of Control regarding the restoration of the Mission San Francisco de Solano in this place with the $5000 appropriated for that purpose by the last Legislature. This historical structure, which was saved and presented to the state by the San Francisco Examiner a number of years ago, will be restored on lines as nearly as possible when erected nearly one hundred years ago by the Franciscan Fathers. When restoration is complete it will be enclosed with a neat fence and its surroundings embellished with lawns and flowers.

After the conference State Engineer Ellery gave out that work of restoration would commence immediately and with that object in view he would detail a man to take charge of the work in a few days. It is understood that City Trustee John Wagoner will superintend the mechanical work of the restoration of the ancient pile of adobe and red tiling.

Hay Market Remains Almost Stationary

In their bulletin for the week ending October 1st, Somers & Co. of San Francisco quote the price of choice wheat hay at $18 to $20 per ton and inferior grades in proportion. In their report they say: "Exceedingly heavy receipts of alfalfa during the week have caused the total receipts of hay to be very heavy, 3519 tons arriving in comparison with 2835 tons the week previous. As will be noted, the larger portion of the hay which arrived came in by water and practically all of this was alfalfa. Arrivals by car consist mainly of the medium and inferior grades of hay, although there are a few cars of the choicer grades being marketed right along and the best of these sell at full quotations. "There is nothing of especial interest to note concerning the general situation. At the present time trade is rather quiet, although holders of hay are all confident that materially better prices will exist as soon as the normal late fall and winter trade commences. "Those interested in the hay trade await with much interest the report of the San Francisco hay association concerning the stocks of hay on hand in the country on the first of November. Although most of the local hay districts will probably show a normal supply on hand, yet the outlying districts will probably show light supplies while in these districts the consumption of hay is heavy and increasing rapidly.

Pilot Train For the President's Special

"Here it is. See, it's a special!" were the shrill utterances from thousands of throats at several hundred stations along the line of the Southern Pacific Company during the five days that President William Howard Taft traveled from one end of the Pacific Coast to the other during the first part of October. But all of these hurrahs, all of the cheers, were directed not at the president's special train but at the Southern Pacific's pilot train which preceded the executive special over the entire Southern Pacific system by ten minutes.

Then, after the pilot train had passed, the crowds that had gathered at each station just to get a glimpse of the President of these United States, would have their attention attracted by the whistle of a train fatter up the road, and the cheers--cheers for the right train--would ring out again. Few of those people who saw the engine and two cars tear past a station a few minutes prior to the arrival of the president's train realized the significance of it. Probably not one out of ten knew that this small train tested every piece of roadbed and track over which the president passed and that among the passengers on those two cars were men prepared to repair any part of the track, roadbed or rolling stock that might have meant disaster had the executive special passed over bad pieces of track at a high rate of speed.

President Taft and his train were met by the pilot train at Ashland, Oregon, on Wednesday evening, October 12. At precisely ten minutes before ten o'clock that same night the pilot train pulled out for California. J. M. Davis, general superintendent of the Southern Pacific, was in charge of the pilot and only a few minutes before he had made out the schedule for his train the exact running time was computed for the distance between stations and a definite time set for the arrival of the pilot at all stations. The engineer and conductor of the president's special had copies of the schedule and were required to pass each station at precisely ten minutes after the pilot was scheduled to have passed. Every stop of the president's train was on time to the second and the man at the throttle knew that he need fear no bad rails or burned bridges. The pilot was ten minutes ahead--approximately ten miles ahead--and would have discovered anything that might have caused even a delay.

Was Associated With Chisholm, The Murderer

Dr. J. S. Herndon, who has confessed to have performed an illegal operation on sixteen-year old Annie Reidl at Sacramento, and who on account of the operation is held for the girl's murder, was at one time associated with Dr. L. C. Chisholm, the man who was convicted in the Superior Court of this county a few months ago for the wilful, foul and abandon murder of Dr. Duillard, otherwise known as John D. Powell, near Fort Ross. Chisholm is now serving a life sentence in prison at Folsom. Although Herndon has confessed to the performing of the operation on the Reidl girl, which cost her her life, he has engaged a lawyer to defend him, claiming that he refused to perform the operation until after a great deal of coaxing, to save the girl from disgrace. Thomas J. Hunt, aged 19 years, is responsible for the girl's condition. The two were to be married when they came of age. Dr. Herndon performed the operation three weeks ago.

Miss Amy Rowe, a millinery of 7 years experience, has arranged to take charge of the hat trimming department of G. H. Hotz's store. Bring in your hat and have it made new. G. H. Hotz.

SUDDEN DEATH IN GLEN ELLEN.

Patrick Monahan, an Old-Time Resident of this Valley, Drops Dead Wednesday Last Morning.

Patrick Monahan, a pioneer resident of this valley dropped dead at his Glen Ellen home early Wednesday morning. His sudden taking off was a great shock to his family and friends, as he was the picture of health when the unexpected summons came.

Mr. Monahan came to Sonoma Valley many years ago and engaged in farming until he sold his ranch some twelve or fifteen years ago and purchased the Mervyn Hotel in Glen Ellen which, with the assistance of his good wife, he conducted successfully for years. About a year ago he retired from the hotel business and leased the Mervyn to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Levy, since which time he has been living in retirement in Glen Ellen. The deceased, who was a native of Ireland and aged 73 years, leaves a widow and a large family of grown sons and daughters to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and a good father.

The sons and daughters and relatives who survive him besides his widow are Thos. and Wm. Monahan, Mrs. Jas. C. O'Rourke, Mrs. Jas. Haley, Mrs. Walter Nottingham, and Misses Catherine and Bernice Monahan. He was also a brother of Thomas Monahan, Mrs. Patrick Kane, Mrs. Wm. Ward and Mrs. Jas. Cooper.

The funeral will take place from his late residence in Glen Ellen this (Saturday) morning at 9 o'clock and proceed to Sonoma, where requiem high mass will be said in St. Francis church at 10:30 a. m.

The interment will be in the Catholic Cemetery.

Grand Jury in Session

The Grand Jury, recently convened at the suggestion of District Attorney Lea, to take action on several important criminal matters and bring offenders to justice, began its session in the Board of Supervisors room in the court house, Santa Rosa, Tuesday morning.

The first day's session a number of witnesses were summoned before the inquisitorial body and examined. Among the matters inquired into was the throwing of a rope across the wires of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company in Petaluma, the rope being attached to a heavy weight which brought three potential wires together carrying sixty thousand volts, and causing all the fuses over that way to be blown out. It is alleged that the crime was committed by some one connected with the Corliss Engine Co., for the purpose of compelling the lighting company to remove a pole on the Corliss grounds. A large number of witnesses from Petaluma were examined in regard to this matter.

Another matter that is engaging the attention of the grand jurors is the ferreting out of the anonymous letter writer who indirectly drove Mrs. Belle Leppo to commit suicide in Santa Rosa recently and has driven other women in that city almost to distraction by threatening them.

Mrs. Rosa Happe Obtains Divorc

Mrs. Rosa Happe, formerly of the Bismarck Hotel in this city has been granted a divorce from her husband, Antone Happe, in the Superior Court of this county. The divorce was granted by Judge Denny on the grounds of cruelty, who also awarded Mrs. Happe the community property. Happe, who deserted his spouse nearly a year ago, is said to be living in the southern part of the state.

The weather the past month has been ideally perfect with its sunshine, balmy breezes and even temperature. It has been most welcome to our vineyardists and winemakers, who are now in the midst of a very promising vintage season and one, too, that bids fair to turn out some of the finest white and red wines produced in the Sonoma Valley for a number of years.

Mayor M. E. Cummings and City Trustee John D. Wagoner returned from Santa Barbara last Sunday evening, where they had been in attendance all week at the convention of the League of California Municipalities. Both took a prominent part in the proceedings and Mr. Cummings was honored with a place on one of the most important committees, that of legislation.

For the convenience of patrons Dr. Lawson, the optical specialist, states he will make his professional visits to Sonoma regularly on the third Thursday of the month.

State, county and city taxes are now due and payable. The former to County Tax Collector Collins at his office in the court house, Santa Rosa, or may be paid at the Sonoma Valley Bank if one desires to avoid the trouble and expense of a trip to the county seat. The latter must be paid to City Tax Collector Alberson at his office in the city hall in this place.

Brooks' comet is one of the latest celestial wanderers in space to be discovered by astronomers and is now said to be visible to the naked eye. It is described as a beautiful sight in the eastern heavens and is to be seen without a telescope between 4 and 5 o'clock in the morning, provided the sky is clear. Many of our people have left warm, comfortable beds at the peep of dawn the past week to get a look at this mysterious traveler of the firmament, which like the "Wandering Jew" is doomed to continue its journey forevermore through the vast domains of space.

The President and Our Reformers.

THE dominant note in a love feast held on Monday of this week at the Palace Hotel by Governor Johnson, Congressman Kent, Meyer Lissner, and other "progressives" was that of disrespect of President Taft. The moving cause was the President's veto of the Arizona bill on the grounds of its application of the recall to the judiciary. This hits hard because the Johnson-Lissner programme for California includes the recall of the judiciary. It is curious, truly, how enthusiasm for a political novelty inspires on the part of those who sustain it resentment against all who question and distrust it. It is ever the way of your furious professional reformer to denounce all men who will not accept his whims and vagaries; he has no respect or charity for those who decline to follow him in any and every proposal, no matter how contradictory it may be of established usage or accepted principle. Whoever is not for all reform proposals, body and breeches, is anathema. Even the President of the United States is not exempt from contemptuous slurs if he have the hardihood to hold views at odds with the reform programme.

At this stage of our political affairs it is not impertinent to question the right of any man to call himself a Republican when his main interest in political affairs is to discredit and thwart party policies and to embarrass party champions. We think that any man who finds it necessary under the guidance of his conscientious impulses to be an offensive and persistent enemy of Mr. Taft ought in grace, even in decency, to cease calling himself a Republican and either go it alone or seek other affiliations. Those who find nothing to their satisfaction in the principles or practice of the party, who can not for conscience sake hold themselves in sympathy and approval of the party officials and leaders—such have no right to claim character as party men. The Johnsons, the Kents, the Lissners, are not Republicans; they have no respect for party principles and purposes; they have no right to claim part and authority in party affairs.

It was the programme of the Johnson-Lissner crowd, a little while back, to set up a delegation to the national convention next year for La Follette. This plan was in the way of execution when Mr. Roosevelt was here in the effort to create a boom for himself, and it tended rather unpleasantly to limit the cordialities of the ex-President's reception. But it appears to have been given over. It was found that there is no sentiment in California for La Follette; that on the other hand the Republicans of California are for Taft. When the delegation to the national convention shall be elected it will be found to be for Taft to a man. The Johnson-Lissner outfit will have to accept the situation and pocket its discomfiture as best it may. In the meantime, there being no law against stupidity and vulgarity, they are at liberty to make faces and sneer spitefully at the man whom the Republicans of California are delighted to honor.—The Argonaut.

Dairyman Fined Twenty Dollars for Having Unsanitary Dairy

The State Dairy Bureau, 16 California street, San Francisco, with an annual appropriation of $20,000 has five regular inspectors at work throughout the state. A few counties also employ inspectors and put them under control of the bureau. Marin and Sonoma counties are now being inspected by Samuel E. Watson, and he has recently visited the dairies around Santa Rosa and Petaluma, finding them in fair condition, as the result of work done by J. A. Butler several months ago, under direction of the bureau. An occasional dairy is found in bad condition and in such cases three days time is given to clean up. One of these at Ely Station, run by Anthony Biagga, was found uncleanly and a complaint was made last Friday, and on October 31st a fine of $20 was assessed to Mr. Biagga by Justice A. J. Atchinson of Santa Rosa. The offense was unclean tinware and utensils, which requires immediate complaint to be made and prompt action.

Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early ages, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other Intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

The genuine has on its outside wrapper the Signature

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.

This burg was rather quiet Sunday morning, but in the afternoon, on account of the Mission bellfeeries, quite a number of Sonoma mites visited this place and were hospitably received as usual.

There will be a social dance in Cypress Hall Saturday evening, November 11th. Excellent music has been engaged for this occasion and a good time is assured all who attend. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged.

Two of the most expert fishermen of this place, Celestine Andrieux and Peter Bosch, Jr., enjoyed a fishing trip to the tules last Sunday. We give the boys credit for one thing and that is this—they didn't bring home any fish stories or for that matter any fish, either.

His honor, the Mayor of Vineburg, has recently made some neat improvements on his place "The Old Homestead." On Tuesday afternoon, as he was driving into his place the animal he was guiding became frightened and ran away. Nothing serious resulted if we except a badly damaged cart.

City Marshal Jas. H. Albertson of Sonoma was here Sunday morning on official business. He was on a thief hunt but somehow or another failed to get his man. He essayed the capture of the burglar who was wanted for several crimes committed in various parts of the valley the past week. The Marshal easily traced the bold bad man into Forni's saloon but before he could effect his capture the burglar eluded the officer and was seen shortly after beating it over the prairie like a scared jack rabbit only to return the same night and rob the very house from which he had fled upon the approach of that officer, and to be subsequently captured by Deputy Sheriff Ryan in Embarcadero.

Vintage Festival

One of the most enjoyable social events that has happened in this vicinity for some time occurred on last Monday evening, October 30, on the upper floor of the McIntosh wine cellar. The large room was tastefully decorated, with the stars and stripes proudly waved in the autumn breeze. Fine music was rendered by Mr. Frank Knolle and Mr. Richard Landraffe, and all danced to their heart's content. Several vocal selections were given by Messrs Otto Schumann and Carl Balisberger, which were well received by the company. At midnight the guests sat down to an elaborate repast. The festive board was covered with every delicacy the most fastidious could wish for, and it certainly reflected great credit on the chef, Philip Bill Jr., who surely knows his business, as the party was under his personal management. He was assisted by Messrs. C. Gross, Carl Battersberg and Jos. F. Groskopf. The following guests were present: Mesdames Schumann, Kerner and A. Bato, Misses Adle Andrieux, Elma Bill, Emma Bill, Louise Bill, Johanna Schumann, Messrs. Philip Bill Sr., Henry Hauer, Chas. Nare, Otto Schumann, Carl Gross, R. Landgraf, F. Knolle, Arthur Bato, Otto Kehag, Will Block, Chas. Groskopf, Jas. Groskopf, Philip Bill Jr., Albert Groskopf Jr., and Al. Kerner. All were delighted with the manner in which they were entertained and are loud in their praise of Philip Bill Jr. and his assistants.

The Late Mrs. Rose M. Lane Will Estate to Her Children

The will of Mrs. Rose M. Lane, who passed away at her Glen Ellen home last month, was filed for probate in the Superior Court of this county Saturday by her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Lane Brown. The estate, which is inventoried at $9,800, is willed to her three children, Gertrude, Josie and Charles Lane. In her original will the deceased nominated her brother, Dr. C. C. O'Donnell, and Mrs. Wooten as executors, but a codicil revoked that appointment in favor of the petitioner, Mrs. Gertrude Lane Brown. The attorneys for the estate are Robt. A. Poppe of this city and A. B. Ware and Phil. B. Ware of Santa Rosa.

A Tribute From an Old Friend

Uncle George Hambleton of Agua Caliente Park has passed away after an illness of two weeks, and as he seemed to be on the mend his kind heart ceased to beat and Uncle George was no more. He will be missed by many. For two years and a-half his kindly face and pleasant voice has greeted hundreds of visitors to Agua Caliente who were looking for a lot or cottage. Always ready to do a kindness to friends or strangers alike, full of sympathy for any one in trouble, always cheerful, even when in sore trouble, and Uncle George had his full share. We have lost a kind, honest, gentle old friend. Caliente will never be the same.

An Old Friend Cripples Industrial Home

The Cripples Industrial Home, founded in the suburbs of this city a few years ago by Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Vaughan, is in a prosperous condition. These good people have recently established in connection with the Home a ladies and gents tailoring establishment complete in every detail. In addition to tailoring there is a pressing and cleaning department operated by men and women skilled in the tailoring art. The institution is rapidly becoming self-supporting through this and other industries introduced by its founders.

Bunco Men Taken to San Jose to Answer For Their Crime

Louis Sorio and Baptista Solosolia, wanted in San Jose for buncoing a farmer over that way, were taken to that city Monday, to answer for their crime. It will be recollected the men were arrested a couple of weeks ago at Brocco's resort, near Glen Ellen, and it now appears they are wanted in Portland, Oregon, and also Southern California, for fleeing unsuspecting farmers out of thousands of dollars.

Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation.

REVENUE OFFICERS SEIZE BAD WHISKY.

Adulterated by Wholesalers in San Francisco and Palmed off on Unsuspecting Retailers in Sonoma, Petaluma and Napa

Revenue officers J. C. Pohley and N. J. Saviers, who have been working in this section of the county for several weeks, have seized between 50 and 75 barrels of spurious whiskey the past week in Petaluma, Sonoma and Napa. The goods were marked as the genuine article all right but did not deceive the shrewd detectives employed by Uncle Sam.

The whiskey was made in a distillery in the east and shipped to San Francisco where it was adulterated by wholesale dealers and sold to liquor firms throughout the state, most of the spurious stuff being shipped to this section of the state. The officers have been doing some detective work on the case and succeeded admirably.

The revenue officers after analyzing the stuff at once got busy. The liquor will be detained by the government and later to be destroyed. The wholesalers who are responsible for the spurious whiskey will be compelled to pay a fine by the government. The fine, by the way, will be a heavy one, owing to the large amount of the goods distributed in this territory.

The Petaluma Courier in commenting on the seizure in that city, says: "The revenue officers found a barrel in each of seven local saloons, having been purchased within the last month."

Social and Business Meeting held at the Congregational Church

A very pleasant and profitable social and business meeting was held at the Congregational church on Wednesday evening last. The affair was under the auspices of the board of directors of the church assisted by the ladies. A large number of the members and friends of the church responded to the invitation to attend, comfortably filling the building.

A short musical program was given in the auditorium after which the audience repaired to the church parlors where a business session of the board was held and matters pertaining to the general welfare of the church were discussed. Reports of the various committees were submitted and a financial statement, showing that the church is free from indebtedness, was read by the treasurer.

Action was taken looking to the installation of a sanitary drinking fountain, the building of concrete walks and other improvements needed both at the church and parsonage.

At the close of the business meeting a social half hour was spent in pleasant intercourse and discussing the delicious refreshments served by the ladies.

It was unanimously voted to hold these social affairs regularly in connection with the meeting of the board of directors.

Aged Man Drops Dead

Anton Manuel Silva, a former well-known resident of Petaluma, but who has been living here for some little time, dropped dead in the yard of the White place in the southern suburbs of town last Monday. An inquest held by Coroner Blackburn on the remains Tuesday developed the fact that heart disease was the cause of death. The deceased was a native of Portugal, and aged 75 years. The remains were buried in the Catholic cemetery in this place Wednesday.

CLEVER CAPTURE OF A DESPERATE CRIMINAL.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan Arrests Man With Goods on Him Wanted on Three Charges of Burglary-- His Desperate Struggle With Thug.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan arrested one of the most desperate criminals ever put under lock and key in this county last Monday night, and lodged him in jail here to answer to three charges of burglary. The prisoner, who is known as Pete Cazette, is about 28 years of age, and made his appearance here a short time ago. Little is known of him here, however, and the man is without a doubt a desperate professional crook.

Last Saturday night the prisoner forced an entrance into the office of Lawrence Villa Park and tapped the till, securing $25 in cash and a solid gold nugget watch chain valued at $100, and made off with his booty.

The next heard of the culprit was when he appeared at Forni's saloon at Vineburg, on Sunday morning, where failing to negotiate the purchase of a shotgun, he bided his time and late Sunday night burglarized the premises, gaining access through a rear door by the aid of skeleton keys, and among other swag secured was the coveted shotgun.

The next place visited by the prisoner was Mrs. Dutil's resort near El Verano. He made his appearance there at about the noon hour and after eating lunch effected an entrance into Mrs. Dutil's private room through a window, using a jimmy in prying the window open. Here he secured $13 in coin, a ladies gold watch, a pair of opera glasses and a silver backed hair brush. He then disappeared.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan was apprised of these robberies Monday afternoon and immediately set out to capture the man who had committed them. Once on his tracks he traced the culprit from place to place and finally ran his man down to a room in the Schellville

Hotel at Embarcadero. Here, he found the culprit with the two doors barred on the inside and fortified with the stolen shotgun. Kicking the weaker of the two doors in the intrepid officer gained access to the room, but was instantly covered with the gun by the desperado, who lay on the bed with the weapon pointed directly in the daring officer's face. For an infinite part of a second it looked like the prisoner getting the officer instead of the officer getting the prisoner. But the unassuming but fearless peace officer never lost his nerve and looking the desperado fearlessly in the eye continued to advance upon him until he was within reaching distance of the weapon, when he suddenly thrust it to one side and pounced upon the man at bay. A desperate struggle then took place for possession of the gun, in which the fugitive was overpowered, disarmed and handcuffed.

Officer Ryan then searched his prisoner and found in his possession every particle of the stolen valuables except about half of the coin, which the man had evidently spent while at large. He then brought his man to town and locked him up to answer to three charges of burglary.

Deputy District Attorney Jack Ford came down from Santa Rosa Wednesday afternoon and had the prisoner taken before Judge Campbell for preliminary examination. The accused, seeing the evidence was dead against him, made a clean breast of burglarizing Lawrence Villa, Dutil's French Cottage at El Verano and Forni's resort at Vineburg. He also confessed to burglarizing the Lambert place and stealing a suit of clothes. The prisoner was committed to the county jail to answer to four charges of burglary.

THE NATIONAL GAME.

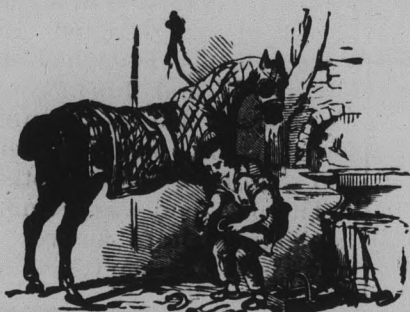

Baseball is Played All Year Round. Winter as Well as Summer.

Baseball is the national game. It is played with a ball and bat in the summer time, and with newspapers, injunctions, contracts and trust magnates in the winter. Originally baseball was a game to see which player could get the most runs. Of late it has become a game to see which magnate can get the most players. The magnates fight for the pennant all winter and the teams ratify the decision the next summer.

Baseball is divided into different denominations, like money. A player is a man who throws a ball or catches it or bats at it. A team is composed of nine players who play and nineteen more who are drawing salaries. A league is composed of eight teams and a squabble over the salary limit. A commission is composed of all the leagues in the country. Baseball is now so well organized that if a player plays "one old cat" with his infant son without the commission's permission he is fined more than if he hit the same son with a baseball bat.

It is a very difficult matter to play baseball successfully. It is even more difficult to witness a game in an expert manner. A good baseball player can play 150 games in succession, but a baseball fan who goes to three games in succession becomes so hoarse that he has to talk on his fingers. A player can throw a ball 100 yards, but some fans can throw pop bottles two blocks. Baseball is not played in the English language. It is played in the American language, which was invented by the baseball reporters.—Peoria Herald Transcript.
